INTRODUCTION

MISSION

Changing Lives
Healing Relationships
Helping People Thrive

Strengthening families today for stronger communities tomorrow

Setting strategic direction in uncertain times is both challenging and essential. The past year and a half set the stage and the foundation for this strategic plan. Child & Family Center continues to navigate both global and local events, and changes that have significant impacts on how we deliver our mission. In the past year and a half, we have been impacted by natural disasters, tragic school shooting, social unrest, increased funding restrictions and an ongoing pandemic. We have been resilient, we have grown, we have learned, and we have matured as an organization, and so must our strategic direction and plan.

As in our last plan, this plan is framed in alignment with four core principles: Better Care, Smarter Spending, Healthier People and Joy in Work with the addition of an intersecting goal: Diversity, Equity and Inclusivity. In addition to our goals for a financially stable and sustainable organization providing quality services to those in need and demonstrating a commitment to our employees, we need to focus on growth. Growth can be achieved in a variety of ways, but what is not strategically in the best interest of Child & Family Center is continuing down the same path of restricted and diminishing revenue and increasing expenses. We have achieved a lot over the past few years and we want to continue to build on these achievements. Without growth, we run the risk of having to contract and eliminate some of our programs and initiatives that we have worked hard to build and create, and for which our clients and communities depend on.

This plan lays out the exciting opportunities before us for a strong, thriving and sustainable organization. The tasks before us may be different, but the goals are the same: provide the best care we can to as many individuals, children and families resulting in healthier people and communities. With the support of our Board and the dedication and resiliency of our staff, I have every confidence that the next three years will bring opportunities that further our mission
