RESOURCES FOR YOU

Child & Family Center (“C&FC”) has provided behavioral health services to the Santa Clarita Valley and surrounding areas for over 40 years. We support our clients by changing lives and healing relationships to help people thrive through education, prevention, advocacy, and treatment. Community resources are critical to strengthening families today for stronger communities tomorrow.

ABOUT THE DIRECTORY

The Directory provides a snapshot of services that you might need when in treatment or at home in the community. The information in this Community Resources Directory (“Directory”) comes from public sources such as websites and reports. Resources are listed by category, in alphabetical order (A-Z). Each category contains a listing of providers and agencies in C&FC’s service areas. They represent different types of services for a healthier life. The Directory includes the contact information as well as a brief description of the services. While the list is comprehensive, it is not exhaustive. If you don’t find what you need, ask your therapist or counselor for help. If you have a life-threatening medical or psychiatric emergency, please dial 911.

Disclaimer: This Directory is informational only and should not be considered a recommendation or replace medical advice. Child & Family Center does not endorse any organization listed nor does it assume liability regarding the quality of services provided by any resource provided herein.

ABOUT CHILD & FAMILY CENTER

Child & Family Center is a nonprofit organization that provides care, treatment, and services that improve the well-being of individuals experiencing problems in life due to mental health, substance use, or domestic violence. Treatment programs are person-centered and recovery-focused. Brief descriptions of our programs are below.

Mental Health Treatment Program. Clients benefit from many programs that emphasize individualized attention and wellness-oriented care, treatment and services offered by skilled and caring mental health professionals. Populations served include children, adolescents, young adults, adults, and families.

- \(661\) 259-9439

Pathways to Recovery Program. Outpatient and intensive outpatient alcohol and drug treatment services are provided in a drug and alcohol-free environment that facilitates recovery, directed towards alleviating and/or preventing alcohol and drug problems. Residential treatment is not offered as part of the treatment and recovery process. Populations served include adolescents, young adults, and adults.

- \(661\) 481-2801

Domestic Violence Program. A range of services are available for domestic and interpersonal violence. Community-based services and emergency shelter are available. Populations served include children, adolescents, young adults, adults, and families.

- DV Hotline \(661\) 259-HELP \(4357\)
